Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 9, 10, and 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

At line 2 of claim 9, "from the heat exchanger" is unclear and seems to imply that text is missing.

At line 3 of claim 10, "on the separating wall toward a front part of the oven" is unclear because the "separating wall" is located at the back of the oven.

At line 1 of claim 26, "27" should be "25."

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claims 1-3, 8-10, 14, 15, 18, 19, 23, 24, 27, and 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Applicant's acknowledged prior art in view of US Pat. 5816234 (US'234).

The acknowledged prior art, at pages 1-2, page 5, paragraph 0016, and Figs. 4A & 4B, discloses a rack oven largely as claimed, including a heat exchanger and convection means, and rotating or wheeled rack means. Moreover, steam supply means are well known and conventional means to avoid drying food items in a convection oven, and hence would have been an obvious adjunct. The claims differ substantively from the acknowledged prior art only in that the latter does not explicitly disclose vertical slot means adjacent the side and directing air flow along a side wall.

Referring to Fig. 3 and col. 2, lines 7-23, US'234 discloses vertical slot means directing air flow along an oven side wall. It would have been obvious to adapt the convection means of US'234 to the prior art oven since US'234 teaches such to enhance heating uniformity.

Regarding claim 23, the air is "directed...away from the...opposite" side wall because the two stream collide there and begin their movement back to the heat exchanger.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 4-7, 11-13, 16, 17, 20-22, and 25 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim 26 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
